

Are you in a dangerous situation?

Questions to consider...

- ◆ How do you get by? Who do you depend on since you've been away from home/on the street?
- ◆ How did you meet this person(s)/your boyfriend/etc.?
- ◆ Has this person ever pressured you to do something you weren't comfortable doing?
- ◆ Have you ever exchanged sex for food, a place to stay or other things you needed?
- ◆ Are you required to earn a certain amount of money/meet a quota for this person?
- ◆ Have you ever been abused (physically, sexually, emotionally, mentally, etc.) or threatened by this person?
- ◆ Do you have to stay in the same place with other people who work for this person? What are the conditions like? Where do you sleep and eat?
- ◆ Has this person ever introduced you to hard drugs/prescription medication?
- ◆ Do you owe a debt to this person? Where did the debt come from?

HOW TO HELP

Based on the assessment questions, or your observations, if you see any potential red flags, contact the National Human Trafficking Hotline at 1-888-373-7888 for specialized victim services referrals or to report the situation.

The presence of these red flags is an indication that further assessment may be necessary to identify a potential human trafficking situation.

1 out of 7 young people between ten and eighteen will run away.
